Questions you may have

“Is there any cost for publishing this?” – There is an $100 fee for a basic announcement, including 2 column x 4 inch photo. Larger photo available at additional cost. Payment is due before publication. If the fee is mailed, please include a check or money order instead of cash. Make check payable to the Daily Journal. Or pay by phone with a credit or debit card.

“What kind and size of photo do I need?” – A clear color photo is best. All photos for engagement announcements should be head and shoulder shots. We cannot use Polaroid or other self-developing types of photographs. We also cannot reproduce any image from a newspaper clipping – the actual photo is needed. Hint: We print all engagement photos in a vertical format (taller than wide), so your photo will reproduce in the newspaper better if it is clear and up close. If there is more than one person in the picture, they should be positioned so their heads are close together. Soft-focus photos do not reproduce well. If you are submitting your photo electronically to celebrations@journalinc.com, the file should be a high resolution (at least 300 dpi recommended) jpeg or tif attached to the email and the photo dimensions should be at least 3.25 inches wide and 4 inches tall. A low resolution (72 dpi) or raw photo can be used, but it should be at least 20 inches wide in size.

“When can I pick up my picture?” – Immediately after it is published. We discard all photos approximately one month after publication. If you provide a self-addressed envelope large enough to hold the photo (it must have a stamp), we will mail your photo back to you.

“I can’t make your deadlines because my photos aren’t back from the photographer yet. What can I do?” – That’s no problem if you let us know in time. You can fill out the form and make a note that the “photo will be delivered later.” We will hold your announcement until the photo arrives. (If photo and form are delivered separately, please make sure that you label the photo with the bride-elect’s full name and wedding date.)

“There’s not enough room on the form. What do I do?” – Additional information can be written on a separate sheet and attached to the form.

The Daily Journal reserves the right to edit any announcement for length.
